

Dos Pueblos Jazz Choir

"To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe."

-Anatole France

Dear Friend,

We are members of the Dos Pueblos Jazz Choir – a local public high school choir organization led by Director Courtney Anderson and a team of DP Choir student elected officers. We are striving to provide the best possible vocal experience for our audiences during these times of deep budget cuts.

The choir, under the direction of Courtney Anderson, has advanced and grown into a group selected to participate in the Reno Jazz Festival. This is a festival that is renowned for bringing both talented students and professional artists together. The choir also collaborates with local leading professional choirs and colleges, incorporates one-on-one interaction with professional artists, and presents ongoing community outreach events and unique performance opportunities for all levels and interests. We at Dos Pueblos High School believe these components are what make this choir unique and one of the best high school choirs in the United States. However, only with your help can we provide this valuable experience that will make a positive difference in their lives.

We would be grateful to receive your donation. As little as $10-$20 makes a great impact on our program. Donations can be done online on the choir website at <http://www.dpjazzchoir.org> or you can mail a check donation back to the "Dos Pueblos Jazz Choir" and mail it to Dos Pueblos Jazz Choir 7266 Alameda Ave, Goleta, CA 93117. Please also look at our fundraising video at <https://youtu.be/nKMMjglqHzM>. Your generous donations are tax deductible. Questions about donations may be emailed to microvet@cox.net.

Again, any contribution you can make is much needed, and greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your generosity and support!

Best regards,

Sherry Trujillo
